About the Exhibitor

My name is Pauline Perlman. I joined the Rahway Senior Center almost 4 years ago and attend sessions on designing special dolls. We get paint, glue, wooden head and small empty spools of thread for the arms. We paint the doll, make the hair from wool, weave it, or on some dolls, use real hair. The fabrics, ornaments, jewelry, etc. are all donated items so the dolls are made from recycled materials.

Our imagination goes to work as far as what we decide to do – make a bride, nurse, etc. I love to display them in various libraries around the state for a month at a time. My 'doll roadies', as they call themselves, are my daughters, Renee and Debbie. They are happy to carry them in and help me put in the display case. For the month of December, the Union Library became #15. We are scheduled for the next few months in Old Bridge, Mountainside, Woodbridge and East Brunswick.

My ultimate wish is for them to find a home in the Smithsonian in Washington, D.C. for the remainder of their years. Children are very interested in them as well as adults.
